Drugs in the Workplace: Building a Strategic Employer Plan

Join us for a panel discussion and learn best practices from some of the most respected business leaders in our community. Come away ready to deliver a practical guide for establishing a safer, more cost-effective and healthier workplace.

Mounting regulation, competition for employment and comingling of multiple generations in the workforce all create challenges that must be addressed.

Find out what you need to know as an employer to develop and deliver a comprehensive and proactive strategy regarding drug use in your workplace.
